SCHOOL UPDATES:

Principal's Blog

Every day, primary classrooms are full with parents, helping students with their reading. We also have volunteers from UVic. It is wonderful to see the energy as students share their learning. Intermediate classes are reading for inference to develop a deeper understanding of the text.

Next week is our assembly. Please ensure that your child has their full uniform. Everyone is welcome to join us on Friday at 9:00 for our monthly assembly. Our grade 5 MC's are Brooklyn and Lorraine

To stay up-to-date on messages from Mrs. Jost, follow her blog here:

Bicycles and scooters

We encourage students to ride their bikes and scooters to school. Please ensure that once you reach the school grounds, dismount and walk your bikes and scooters to the bike racks. There are a lot of people on the school grounds, so to help insure a safe environment we ask that bikes and scooters are walked while on the school grounds.

1000 x 5

163,000 books in 7.5 years have been distributed to babies and preschoolers! 1729 of those books have been donated by families at our school! Have you found the pink bin in the school office? Help all children enter the early literacy club.
