SCHOOL UPDATES:

Principal's Blog

Lest We Forget. Students have been learning about the meaning of Remembrance Day and how so many people played a role in making Canada what it is today. Our Remembrance Day Ceremony was very well attended. Master Seaman Ryan Burrell of the Royal Canadian Army spoke and Private Jordan Smale played the Last Post and Rouse. Our Colour Guard consisted of students from Guiding, Scouting, Cadets and Aboriginal Community. Wreaths were laid by each class. The grade 5 students recited In Flanders Field and the choir and strings performed Peace Like a River. I hope on November 11, families will be able to attend a ceremony or pause to remember everyone who has worked so hard and sacrificed so much to make the world a better place. Lest We Forget.
