SCHOOL UPDATES:

Principal's Blog

It is hard to believe that we have come to the last day of the 2018-2019 school year. There have been so many events that have happened, so many things that we should be so proud of and so many things to look forward to in the 2019-2020.

As you are aware, the Board of Trustees voted to accept the recommendation to change Cloverdale Traditional School from a district wide catchment area school to a boundary school beginning in the 2020 school year. As a result, we will no longer be able to be a traditional school; however, we will continue to have the same guiding principles and philosophy. We will continue to be a school that is committed to high academic standards, social responsibility and respect. We will have continuous dialogue as a school community to ensure that we have a transition plan. Thank you to everyone that responded to surveys, attended and spoke at board meetings, wrote to the board, to ensure that your voice was heard.

At this time of year, we have to say adieu to some of the familiar faces at Cloverdale Traditional School. We hope that we will see them again either in the community or at another school.

Tonya Dailyde will be teaching 1/2 at Sir James Douglas

Shannon Jost will be teaching k/1 at Rogers Elementary

Michelle Gagnon will be an EA but is not assigned at this time

Meghan MacIsaac will be at home with her baby

Anita Mesman will be an EA but is not assigned at this time

Al Reid will be a YFC at a school but is not assigned at this time

Karm Shonki will be teaching but is not assigned at this time

Katrina Toronyi will be an office assistant but is not assigned at this time

Chelsea Young will be teaching but is not assigned at this time

We wish everyone well, in the next chapter of their career.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my first year as principal of Cloverdale Traditional School. The students, parents and staff make it a true joy to come to work each day. Every visitor to our school is extremely complimentary. Welcoming, kind, caring, respectful and hardworking are words they use to describe the students of Cloverdale Traditional School. I look forward to the new year, taking on new challenges and supporting our school community.

To all the families that will be leaving us, I wish you all the best and we would love for you to come back for a visit. To all the new kindergarten families who are joining us in September, welcome and I look forward to getting to know your family. To everyone, I wish you a very safe, happy and relaxing summer. Happy Summer!
