SCHOOL UPDATES:

Principal's Blog

I hope everyone was able to enjoy the long weekend. As we start to see more business open and more activity allowed it is even more important for everyone to practice social distancing and hand washing. We will continue to strictly enforce this at school. If you have any interesting pictures that you would like to share of learning activities and students, we would love to see them. This week we saw more students coming back to school and on June 1 we will see even more. Every teacher has mentioned how amazing it has been to see the students and working with them again. Thank you parents for continuing to support remote learning. We know that it can be a challenge. Please remember that we know you are doing your very best. First and foremost needs to be the social and emotional well-being of all.

Please see this week's photo contest photos here: <https://cloverdale.sd61.bc.ca/wp-content/uploads/sites/63/2020/05/Photo-Challenge-Week-7.pdf>. Please identify what and where these items are located in our school. Send your guesses to sjost@sd61.bc.ca

Reaching out by phone or email to someone you have not heard from in a while will put a smile on your faces. Have a wonderful weekend.

Get ready, it is time to build your own Rube Goldberg machine!

Ms. Moser has been working with other teachers in the district to put together a district wide Rube Goldberg machine competition!

Students are invited to create a Rube Goldberg machine, video it and share it with a team of judges who will then post it on this website. Posting it is optional and a media release form must have been signed at the start of the year. If you haven't signed a media release form or you don't want your entry shared on the website you can send Ms. Moser the video so she can see what you've built. All the assignment information and deadlines are included on this website.

<https://sites.google.com/sd61learn.ca/rubegoldbergchallenge/home>.

Please make sure to read the detail on the website if you'd like to participate! Once you have completed your machine you can take a video and send it to cmoser@sd61.bc.ca. Deadline to enter is Friday, May 29. There will be prizes handed out! If you have any questions you can email cmoser@sd61.bc.ca.
