SCHOOL UPDATES:

Principal's Message

We have had a beautiful week of Remembrance here at Cloverdale Traditional School. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all families who sent images of family members for our virtual slide show, the students for the beautiful art work displays, those who carried wreaths, Piper Ken Ireson for participating by walking the circumference of the school and piping on the 'front porch' during the memorial portion of our slide show, and most especially Mrs. Sapsford for her tireless efforts in creating a most outstanding virtual 'assembly'. The assembly was a very moving tribute to all those who deserve acknowledgement for the way we here in Canada can live our best lives. During the whole school singing of This Day of Peace, as I sat at the window of my office listening to the beautiful voices coming from throughout the building an amazing little hummingbird floated back and forth several times across the window under the oak trees. This seemed a very fitting reminder of peace during this Remembrance Day assembly.

Virtual Book Fair Starts Monday, November 16

Get some great deals on great books and help support our library at the same time by shopping at our Virtual Book Fair hosted by Scholastic. Find all the info you need on our Book Fair Website. You'll also find our Mystery Reader game on the website...can you or your children guess which CTS Staff Member is reading the book? Check the website to see the answer and new pictures each school.
